Dear Parents, Carers & Parishioners,

We have had another busy week in school this week. On Tuesday our Reception children had their Graduation Ceremony. It was wonderful to look back on the fantastic first year they have enjoyed at St Patrick's. They have been wonderful. Thank you to everyone who attended. On Thursday, our superb Choir entertained us all with some amazing songs. Mrs Griffiths has worked tirelessly with the children this year and we appreciate her efforts. Choir is always very well attended and the children have been a real credit to our school. Well done for the commitment you have shown throughout the entire year.

Next week promises to be just as busy. We have our Summer Fayre on Tuesday at 1.30pm, our End of Year Mass on Thursday at 9.30am and the Year 6 Leavers Assembly on Friday at 9.10am. We look forward to seeing many of you there.

Have a lovely weekend and enjoy the wonderful sunshine.

Best Wishes,

Paul Rogers

Summer Fayre

Our Summer Fayre will take place on Tuesday 14th July at 1.30pm. We look forward to seeing you there as we look to raise funds to create our chill-out room and sensory areas around school. Your incredible support is always hugely appreciated.

Transition Day

On Thursday the children spent time in their new classes with their teacher for the next school year. This was a relaxed opportunity to loom ahead at next year and to get used to their new surroundings. The children did really well and the teachers were very impressed. Well done.

Reception Graduation

On Tuesday we celebrated the end of Reception's first year in school. We definitely had lots of proud parents and carers. It was wonderful to see how much the children have learned and how confident they have become.

Parent Questionnaires

A huge thank you to everyone who has returned the parent questionnaire. Parent feedback is very important in informing school of areas that are going very well but also alerting us of any concerns or uncertainties that parents may have. If you haven't returned the questionnaire yet then we would be grateful if you could spare a few minutes and complete them. Using your views and feedback will help when looking at school improvement.

Feedback from school will be forwarded to parents at the beginning of the autumn term in response to the questionnaires.

Procedure for appointments during school hours

If you have to take your child out of school for any reason, including a medical, dental, school visit appointment, please could you inform the school office prior to the appointment along with any supporting evidence of the appointment. This is so that we can authorise the absence where we can and your child is not marked as unauthorised in our register.

Please see below guidance from the government regarding school attendance. <https://www.gov.uk/school-attendance-absence>

Children should aim to arrive in school by 8.55 am at the latest. Persistent lateness causes disruption to your child's education.

Late arrivals

We understand that mornings can be hectic and that, on occasion events beyond parents' control can cause delays on the journey to school. However, we have noticed that the number of children arriving at school after the gates have closed at 8:55am has increased in recent weeks.

Class registers are taken at 9:00am prompt as we don't want to miss any learning opportunities. All children should be in class and sat down by 9:00am.

Year	Attendance this week:
R	100%
1 / 2	98.76%
3 / 4	93.89%
5 / 6	95.91%
Weekly Overall Attendance: 96.63%
Yearly Attendance to date: 94.8%

Standards at St. Patrick's

Our expectations on attendance must remain strong and, as the parent community know, we take this part of our job very seriously indeed. We will be contacting parents/carers of those children who are persistently absent, this means any child with an attendance percentage of 90% or less. Please understand that this is a supportive measure and that we are working hard to leave no stone unturned to help your child achieve the very best possible outcomes.

15th Sunday in OT (A)

invites us to think about how God's word works in our lives. Each reading uses simple images from the world around us. Rain, seeds, soil, and harvest all show how God's word brings life and hope. These readings remind us that God always works with purpose. In Isaiah, we hear how God's word is like rain that makes the earth fruitful. Paul tells us in Romans that creation itself longs for freedom and shares in our hope. In the Gospel, Jesus uses the parable of the Sower to teach us that our hearts must be ready to receive God's word. On the 15th Sunday, these passages come together to remind us that God's plan is certain. His word nourishes us, even when life feels dry or hard. With open hearts, we can grow strong in faith and bear much fruit.

First reading

Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the Lord: 'For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the Sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.'

Responsorial Psalm: Some seed fell into good soil and yielded its fruit.

Second reading

Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and Sisters: I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption, and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies.

Alleluia, alleluia. The seed is the word of God, Christ the Sower; all who find him will live for ever. Alleluia.

Gospel

Mathew 13:1-23

At that time: Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the lake. And great crowds gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat down. And the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: 'A Sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, since they had no depth of soil, but when the sun rose they were scorched. And since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. He who has ears, let him hear.'

Then the disciples came and said to him, 'Why do you speak to them in parables?' And he answered them, 'To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. Indeed, in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says: "You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive." For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them. But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. For truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.'

'Hear then the parable of the Sower: When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while, and when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately he falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.'

Sea Sunday

Stella Maris (formerly known as Apostleship of the Sea) is the maritime charity of the Catholic Church. Its chaplains and ship visitors provide practical help and pastoral care to seafarers and fishers in the UK and around the world. The parish collects for Stella Maris, via the 2nd collection, which means our parish stands alongside seafarers so they always have someone to turn to in times of need.

It is by the Sea of Galilee that Jesus calls His first disciples, inviting them to be-come "fishers of men". In that moment, their lives are changed forever as they leave behind certainty and follow a new path of mission and service. At times, the sea also represents the unknown, the depths of human emotion, or the forces of nature that are beyond human control. The sea is often a metaphor for the journey of life, full of challenges but also opportunities for growth.

St Patrick's Parish Summer Social Event

Parishioners came together last week for a relaxed and enjoyable evening at our Summer Social Event. It was a lovely occasion, bringing members of our parish community together. The grand prize raffle was a great success, raising £210 for the defibrillator fund.

Thanks to all our parishioners for their support and generosity.

Special thanks to our dedicated volunteers and our young people whose hard work, organising, selling raffle tickets, baking, and serving refreshments made the event such a huge success.

Pastoral Strategy & Mission Discernment

Our Pastoral Strategy (the working document to help us realise our Diocesan Vision)

Update from Bishop Stephen :

Across all parishes, partnerships and schools, we are all asked to prayerfully discern where we are strong and where we can grow; to consider how we will continue to serve the Lord and each other in changing times; and how we can make best use the opportunities, resources and talents that we are given.

We are asked to listen to what the Lord is calling us to be and do.

Parishes have met individually and are now working within their partnerships or local community groups. Later this year, discussions will be held within our five Deaneries.

These findings, decisions & actions to take will form our Pastoral Strategy 2026-2035.

Seasons of Change - a prayer

Ever notice how the weather can change in a matter of minutes?

One moment it's blazing sunshine, the next, the sky turns dark and a thunderstorm rolls in.

That's a lot like life.

Seasons of peace can suddenly become seasons of struggle, but - here's the good news.

While the weather changes - God doesn't.

He is the same in the heat of success and the storms of suffering. Don't build your life on changing circumstances. Build it on Jesus.

Because when your foundation is Jesus, you can stand firm whether the sun is shining or the thunder is rolling in. Fr Jonathon Bowes

Wednesday 8th July 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

Children love to be listened to and it helps them to grow in self-esteem. If, from a young age, they know that we truly listen to them, they are far more likely to keep listening to us as they mature.

Listening to the right people and the right messages is important for us and for our children. In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear Jesus inviting us to listen to him and act upon his words.

Like any good teacher, Jesus uses pictures or parables to make his teaching clearer. Jesus is like a sower, scattering his words like seeds. Jesus' words have stood the test of time. They are rooted in love and can be trusted to guide us and our children.

Enjoy a very special time together this evening, listening to your child's thoughts about this Sunday's Gospel and this Wednesday's word, which is LISTENING.

Dom Henry Wansbrough

A Word from the Saints

"Before we speak, it is necessary for us to listen. God speaks in the silence of the heart." St Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa)

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH Sunday 12th July 2026

Jesus left the house and sat by the lakeside, but such crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat there. The people all stood on the beach, and he told them many things in parables. He said, "Imagine a sower going out to sow. As he sowed, some seeds fell on the edge of the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Others fell on patches of rock where they found little soil and sprang up straight away, because there was no depth of earth; but as soon as the sun came up they were scorched and, not having any roots, they withered away. Others fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on rich soil and produced a great crop. This is like those people who hear my words and understand them; they yield a great harvest and produce now a hundredfold, now sixty, now thirty. Listen, anyone who has ears!"

Good News
for Everyone

Jesus often used parables (little stories) to teach the crowds who came to listen to him. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us how important it is to take time to listen to God and to be open to receive and act upon what we hear. This helps us to make wise and safe life choices.

10 Ways You Can SHARE KINDNESS ONLINE

Last year, around one in five young people aged 10–15 in England and Wales admitted experiencing online bullying: most commonly being insulted or sworn at, or having hurtful messages sent about them. To someone who's being bullied, the world can seem like a bleak, negative place – but just one kind word can be a ray of hope: a turning point that brightens their day and refreshes their perspective. That's why 'One Kind Word' is the theme of Anti-Bullying Week 2021. We're supporting this year's event by bringing you ten top tips for beating online bullying by replacing it with kindness.

1 PRAISE WHERE IT'S DUE

Sometimes a friend or relative might post online about something they're proud to have achieved: maybe an exam they've passed, a new skill they've learned or a task they've completed. Celebrate their hard work and determination by being kind enough to praise them for it publicly.

2 REACH OUT

It's not always easy to tell what kind of mood someone is in just from what they post online. Simply dropping somebody a message to say 'hi', to ask if they're OK or to tell them that you're thinking of them could totally make their day.

3 RECOMMEND FUN THINGS

If there's something you enjoy doing online – perhaps you play a particular game, or you've found a really cool site – share it with someone you think will enjoy it. Even recommending a film or TV show you think they'll like can bring a little happiness to someone who really needs it.

4 OFFER TO HELP

Sometimes you might see a friend or family member posting a question online or asking for help with something they can't do themselves. Don't just ignore it – if you can help, get in touch. Something that's difficult for them might be no trouble for you!

5 POST POSITIVELY

Lots of people seem to go online purely to complain about things or be negative. Just because you're communicating online (and not face to face) doesn't mean you can't be positive, though! Post about things that make you happy and that you're thankful for. It could brighten someone else's day.

6 SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION

If somebody that you know has done something positive or shown kindness themselves, go online and thank them with a message or a post. Expressing your gratitude costs nothing and showing someone that you appreciate them will really make them feel good.

7 BE UNDERSTANDING

Showing empathy towards others is an act of online kindness which often gets overlooked. If you notice that someone you know is upset, drop them a message. Sometimes people just need someone else to listen to them and understand their situation.

8 SHARE INSPIRATIONAL POSTS

When you see something online that inspires you or makes you feel happy, share it with people you know. A spot-on quotation, a beautiful photo or an uplifting video can lift someone's spirits and help them to feel better about life.

9 THINK BEFORE COMMENTING

Thinking before we act can be just as important as acting in the first place. Taking a second to consider what you're saying in advance could stop you from posting something negative, hurtful or offensive – even if you don't mean to. It's better to post positively or not post at all.

10 LIKE, LOVE AND ENGAGE

If somebody posts something that you like on social media, don't just scroll past – take the time to like it, love it or leave an appreciative comment! Reacting positively to other people's posts might seem like a small gesture but could mean a lot to them.
